Luther Academy

development plan for study field RELIGION AND THEOLOGY by 2025

The aim of the study field (SF) "Religion and Theology" is to ensure for students opportunity to acquire existentially constant spiritual guides and values in the dynamic environment of the modern society.

Luther Academy (LA) provides education in the study field "Religion and Theology" to give students an opportunity to gain Bachelor's degree in theology via high-quality studies that are based on interdisciplinary research and cooperation with Latvian and international partners (Evangelical Lutheran Church of Latvia in particular), promotion of religious literacy, economic and social sustainability as well as development of a student-oriented education and learning environment.

In the academic year 2021/2022, the study field "Religion and Theology" offered by the LA covers the academic study programme Theology implemented at the Bachelor's level.

The tasks of the study field are based on the tasks defined in the LA development strategy for 2021 - 2025 tasks:

- 1) to offer modern, quality and research-based higher education;
- 2) to prepare suitable, competitive theology and religion professionals meeting the current needs of the society;
- 3) to introduce new study forms and approaches;
- 4) to implement various types of cooperation to improve the quality of studies;
- 5) to implement student attraction policy;
- 6) to develop and strengthen capacity and quality of the academic research in the strategic specialization of the LA;
- 7) to expand national and international cooperation in the areas of academic scholarship and research;
- 8) to improve the infrastructure and availability of funding for academic research at the LA;
- 9) to develop an offer of lifelong learning suitable for LA's target audiences;
- 10) to build cooperation with people interested in volunteering to research their educational needs and develop an offer;
- 11) to use lifelong learning as a long-term link with the LA graduates;
- 12) to rise popularity of the Open Academy.

The key tasks of the study field to be accomplished in 2021–2025
